

Murfreesboro City Schools Choice Schools

Murfreesboro City Schools (MCS) is pleased to have three choice schools as options for our students and parents. Our choices include the content focuses:

- Arts
- STEM (science, technology, engineering, mathematics)
- Leadership

These campuses are part of a strong portfolio of schools within our district.

MCS sets high academic standards for all students at each of our traditional and choice schools equipping them with the knowledge and ability to succeed in high school and beyond.

Below you will find a brief description of our choice schools aimed at helping you make informed decisions about whether a choice school is right for your child. Please feel free to contact the school principal for additional details or visit the school website. Choice enrollment is limited.

Bradley Academy - Arts Integrated School

Bradley Academy is recognized for excellence in arts — creative writing, drama, instrumental music, theater, visual arts and vocal music. Coupled with a strong academic program, Bradley develops both the artistic and academic talents of its students.

Hobgood Elementary – STEM School

The STEM program shows students the value of learning skills in science, technology, engineering and mathematics. Students learn to become critical thinkers through hands-on academic experiences that involve innovative new technologies.

Mitchell-Neilson – Leadership Academy

Leader in Me is an innovative, school-wide model that increases teacher effectiveness, student engagement, and academic achievement, while preparing students to be leaders in the 21st century. The development of good habits, grounded in the values of citizenship and leadership, is a fundamental part of this philosophy.

Please note:

- Bus transportation is not provided for students utilizing the choice school out of zone.
- Students must stay in good standing with school in regards to tardies and absences.
- Students not following school policies will be reviewed for possible return to the zoned schools.
- Students will adhere to the provisions outlined in the parent handbook.
- Rising students are not guaranteed placement in a choice school. School records will be reviewed.
